The Leadership Academy, a comprehensive six-month training program that will introduce various time-tested and proven leadership concepts, focuses on practical, professional and ethical issues facing lawyers in Greater Louisville. The mission of the academy is to:

- Develop the leadership skills of attorneys in their early years of practice.
- Empower those attorneys to use their leadership skills to make greater contributions to the Louisville community and the legal profession.

- Encourage diversity in the practice of law and building of relationships among attorneys of diverse backgrounds.
- Model and practice the highest standards of the legal profession.

Participants who complete the Academy will graduate at a special ceremony in March 2015.
